Singing For Fun with Music Builds Community

🎵 Come and Sing for Fun– Inside the Lumini! 🎵

Join Music Builds Communities for a fun, feel-good singing session inside the glowing, colourful world of Lumini.

Led by John, this relaxed and joyful sing-along workshop is open to absolutely everyone: no experience needed, no sheet music, and no pressure. Book your ticket, join in, and feel the uplifting power of voices coming together. Each session will include four of the regular items from “The Last Night of the Proms” and a few well-known popular songs. Singing will be accompanied on acoustic guitars.

We'll sing simple, beautiful songs from around the world in a truly magical setting. Whether you sing every day or haven't sung since school, you're warmly welcome.

- Free to join
- Voices of all ages and abilities welcome
- Children under the age of 16 must be accompanied by an adult

About Music Builds Communities

Music Builds Communities is a local volunteer-led project that brings people together through the joy of shared music-making. Based in and around Newmarket, MBC runs friendly, informal sessions that are open to everyone: no experience needed, just a willingness to join in and have a go! That has included singing and drumming to ukulele groups and performances, it's all about building confidence, wellbeing, and community spirit.

Current activities include:

🎵 Singing for Fun – a relaxed, monthly sing-along with live acoustic guitar and projected lyrics. For upcoming sessions and why singing with others is good for you click on the link below.

🎸 Electric Guitars – a chance for guitarists, bassists, keyboard players and drummers to jam together
